

Insurance

Through our industry-focused Insurance Law Department and broader practice groups, we have served the insurance industry for nearly five decades.

Overview

Our broader practice groups provide insurance industry clients with counsel and representation related to:

- Appellate representation
- Casualty and general liability matters
- Commercial litigation
- Corporate and transactional matters
- Employment and labor matters
- Environmental counsel
- Healthcare law
- Information privacy and security
- Internal investigations and white collar defense
- Professional liability and medical malpractice claims
- Tax controversy
- Workers' compensation defense in Pennsylvania and New Jersey