

Manufacturing

Through our Products Liability Litigation Practice Group and our broader practice groups, our attorneys provide the manufacturing industry with sophisticated representation in litigation, regulatory, transactional, and compliance matters.

Overview

Legal services we provide manufacturers include:

- Representation in a wide variety of complex products liability litigation including serving as national and regional counsel to manufacturers.
- Counsel related to the avoidance and defense of product liability claims.
- Representation in employment and labor matters, including compliance and litigation.
- Counsel related to corporate, real estate, construction, and financial transactions.
- Internal investigations and white collar defense.
- Workers' compensation defense in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.