

Pharmaceutical

We represent and defend clients across the full spectrum of the pharmaceutical industry, including research and development companies, mainline pharmaceutical manufacturers, generic manufacturers; pharmacy benefit managers (PBM); and retail and hospital-based pharmacies.

Overview

Through a variety of the firm's practice groups, we provide the pharmaceutical industry with counsel and representation related to:

- Class action defense.
- Direct managed care contracting with health plans.
- Employment and labor issues from wrongful discharge through injuries in the workplace.
- Fraud and abuse issues.
- False claims and qui tam defense.
- General liability and premises claims.
- Health information and privacy compliance advice.
- Professional liability litigation and medical malpractice litigation defense for pharmaceutical-related matters in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.
- Professional licensure for pharmacists licensed in Pennsylvania.
- Representation in products liability and toxic tort claims.
- Workers' compensation defense in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.