We counsel and defend clients in complex litigation regarding handling, disposal, and clean-up of hazardous substances and related personal injury matters.

Overview

Our Toxic Tort Liability attorneys serve as national and regional counsel for numerous clients, including those dealing with national latex claims. Our ability to form teams with the firm's Insurance Law group provides a multi-disciplinary approach, whether it is complex litigation regarding handling, disposal, and clean-up of hazardous substances or the defense of personal injury matters.

Our Toxic Tort attorneys handle cases that include the following areas:

- Asbestos
- Mold
- Pesticides
- Benzene
- Lead
- Solvents/chemicals
- Latex gloves
