

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

POST & SCHELL'S BRIAN M. PETERS STEPS DOWN AFTER 14-YEAR
TENURE AS FIRM'S PRESIDENT & CEO; NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED
ATTORNEY WILL REMAIN AT FIRM TO DEVOTE FULL TIME TO GROWING
THE FIRM'S HEALTH LAW PRACTICE

Principal and Board Chair Michael W. Gang to Assume Role as Acting President & CEO

PHILADELPHIA, PA – January 9, 2015 – Post & Schell, P.C. announced today that Brian M. Peters has stepped down from his long-standing role as President & CEO of the Firm, a position he has held since 2000, from which he continued to build on Post & Schell's foundation of excellence in client service, expanded and diversified practices, and rebranded the Firm. Mr. Peters, a co-author of two health law treatises, and a Faculty Member of The Governance Institute, will now devote his time fully to his national health care practice.

Michael W. Gang, Chair of the Firm's Board, and Co-Chair of the Firm's Energy & Utilities and Marcellus Shale Practice Groups, will be Acting President & CEO until a new leader is elected.

"From both a personal and professional point of view, this is the time for me to entrust the Firm's leadership to the Board of Directors and the next President & CEO," said Mr. Peters. "I am ready. The Firm is ready. I look forward to assisting Firm leadership with the transition, and devoting my full attention and energy to my practice, and continuing to collaborate with attorneys and staff I respect and admire so much."

"I believe Brian's accomplishments to be unparalleled," Mr. Gang said. "From recruiting and establishing Energy, Information Technology, White Collar, Environmental and Construction practice groups and implementing in 2003 the design of universal-sized offices, to rolling out a digital matter-centric work environment, Brian has helped grow and transform Post & Schell, and he has made it a great place for exceptional lawyers and staff."

In addition to Mr. Gang's role as Acting President & CEO, the Firm will be governed by a Board of Directors, comprised of leaders from many of the Firm's core practice groups.

"We have a strong Board to help guide the Firm, and the platform Brian created has positioned us well, both financially and operationally," Mr. Gang added. "We will continue to assess our mix of practices and opportunities for growth. Our clients are delighted with the cost-effective results we achieve, and there will be no diminution of our drive for excellence. We will continue to seek Brian's insight, and also look forward to the continued development of his vibrant health care practice."

About Post & Schell, P.C.

Post & Schell, P.C. is committed to defining, measuring and achieving legal excellence. We provide sophisticated legal services and strategic counseling to highly regulated industries and their directors, officers, and stakeholders regionally, nationally and internationally. Our attorneys use intellectual rigor and seasoned judgment to provide our clients with problem-solving and efficient representation in litigation, regulatory, compliance, corporate and public policy matters.

Our focused legal product lines are vertically integrated into a variety of highly regulated industries including: banking and financial services; commercial transportation; commercial construction; energy & utilities; health care; hospitality; information technology and informatics; insurance; manufacturing; medical device; pharmacy benefit management; pharmaceutical; and professional services.

With fully staffed offices in Washington, D.C., Princeton, NJ, and Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Lancaster, and Allentown, Pa., our attorneys represent industry regardless of venue or geographic market.

Learn more about Post & Schell at: www.PostSchell.com

Media contact:

Paul Johnson
Communications Manager
Post & Schell, P.C.
215-587-5937
pjohnson@postschell.com